June 1, 2010

The Cultural Alliance of Fairfield County is proud to participate with the Town of Fairfield and the Fairfield Arts Council in the announcing June 2010 as "Fairfield Arts Month". We are dedicated to supporting the arts and cultural organizations and artists that help make Fairfield County such a great place to live. The Cultural Alliance provides unified marketing, professional development, advocacy and cultural leadership for our region.

In June, like every month, Fairfield offers a variety of culture rich, engaging and fun events. For instance, at the Fairfield Museum and History Center you can view the work of internationally acclaimed photographer, Jay Maisel, and learn how Connecticut history connects to baseball history. Art exhibits in Fairfield are always a treat at The Quick Center for the Arts at Fairfield University, Sacred Heart University's Gallery of Contemporary Art and Fairfield's newest gallery, ArtPlace. This is just the tip of the iceberg of what Fairfield has to offer our community. WSHU public radio's "Join the Conversation" series event this month will be held at the Fairfield Theater Company featuring tennis play and sports commentator Patrick McEnroe. The town of Fairfield and beyond can always count on the Fairfield Theater Company for things to do in Fairfield. In June you can enjoy a Grammy award winning pianist, folk music, blues, jazz, classic rock or roar with laughter at potentially explosive OFF THE WALL storytelling.

The Cultural Alliance is thrilled to provide Fairfield County's best online resource for arts & culture, www.FCBUZZ.ORG. Fairfield has so much to offer the entire region.
